Listening ears

Mr Luxon & Mrs Edwards (Anti Bullying Co-ordinators) had a meeting with our Listening Ears who gave us feedback through words and pictures of their experiences. Everyone is still enjoying their role and gave a solid thumbs up. Below are pictures and some quotes given with examples:

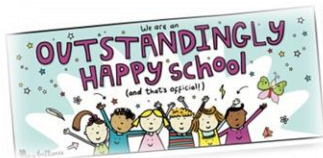

"I really enjoy being a Listening Ear. People do come to me for help and because I can help them I enjoy it. An example of when I helped is when I say someone alone and I was able to help them find someone to play with. I think it is important that people do come to us for help and that they trust us! – Lilly-Karen

"I like being a listening ear, because I like to help people and that's what Listening Ears do: An example is if someone is sad in the playground you ask them if they are okay and other things like that and if they want to be left alone then they can be left alone" – Sam
