Welcome to your new style, new Monday newsletter!

Monday? Why is it out on a Monday?

Carry on reading and it will all become clear...

Parent voice update

We had our very first Parent Voice meeting last half term to discuss what clubs children might like the school to offer. We listened to the suggestions and talked around all sorts of things club related.

From our discussions:

- It was suggested that maybe a Friday was not the best day for our newsletter. Being the end of the week and a time when everyone is switching off from school and work...So here we are on a Monday! Do keep an eye out for the newsletter on a Monday and please encourage other parents to read it.
- There is now a list of clubs the school offers at the end of this and every newsletter so that you can see at a glance what clubs are available to your child's year group. If you would like your child to join a club please do contact the school office to enquire if there are spaces and what the cost is.
- I am meeting with a local music teacher to see what tuition the school can offer children and I shall be discussing the possibility of an after-school club too. This is very exciting as I understand he teaches steel drums!
- I have contacted a ballet teacher to find out if she would like to offer a ballet club for our younger children.
- We were also asked about a chess club and a phonic club. This is something we are looking into. If there are any chess masters out there who would like to run a chess club please do come forward, we would love to hear from you.

We will update you on any further club information in the coming weeks.

Our next parent voice meeting will be on Tuesday 28 June 2022 at 2.30 pm. Do come along and have a cup of tea or coffee and a chat about communication and what the preferred methods of communication for parents are.

Jubilee Day and photo permissions.

The children and staff all had a brilliant day. We are busy collating a montage of photos from the day for you to see. Some children do not have permission to have their pictures used by the school. Can I ask that you let the office know if that is still correct as it limits the photo opportunities that we can use.

Class Photographs

Proofs of the class photographs were sent home last week. A reminder that the deadline to order them either online or return back to school is Monday 20 June 2022. Thank you.
